

VIENNA RESUMES OLD TIME GAYETY

(By International News Service.)
VIENNA, Dec. 27.—Vienna is enjoying a resumption of its gay night life in striking contrast to last winter, but there is, nevertheless, abject poverty and great misery.

The streets at night are filled with motor cars, splendid carriages and people elegantly dressed.

Brilliant theatrical and musical productions marked the opening of the season and the public appeared to be willing to pay any number of crowns to enjoy the opera and to have an opportunity of seeing the Italian master, Puccini, who attended one performance.

There is always a large attendance at the "smoking theaters" and cabarets.

This new wave of pleasure which is sweeping over the city has economic significance. Many thousands of people are obtaining a living by entertaining foreigners who have plenty of money and this is the chief reason why everything is done to attract them.

But underneath it all there is tragedy. Most of the artists in the theaters and concert halls are underpaid, and for the bulk of those forming the middle classes there is no possible participation in the gayeties which they see on every side.

Recently Max Margulies, a famous meteorologist, died of hunger and want because he was too proud to appeal to the international relief committee for help, and there are many others who are in a similar plight.

HORSE CAR MAN IS NOW FAMOUS

(By International News Service.)
CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—Few of the "old-timers" who rode the Halsted street cars when horses were the vogue in motive power on Chicago's paths of commerce remember the erratic conductor who called all the streets wrong and stopped his horse-drawn car in the middle of the block for acquaintances and shivered on the back platform in the early eighties while delving into the mysteries of Greek classics. The erratic conductor's name was Knute Hansson and his birthplace was Norway, and his name now is given back to Chicago as the winner of the Nobel prize for 1920.

The name of the book which has won fame for the former Chicago street car conductor is "Hunger."

"Hunger" has been translated into 23 languages.

Dr. Andrew Dow is one of the "old-timers" who remember Knute of the days of horse-drawn street cars.

"I remember him well," said Dr. Dow in a recent interview. "A dreamer boy, tall, thin, white-haired. He came to Chicago from North Dakota. The passengers used to get mad at him, so Knute lost his job. An old lady asked him which way the car was going and his outburst brought about his discharge."

Hansson went from Chicago to New York, engaged as a fisherman off the Newfoundland banks and finally drifted back to Norway, where he began to write. He is 60 years of age, in humble circumstances, and his book tells the story of his struggles to make a bare living.

URUGUAY TO SEND CRUISER TO MEET SECRETARY COLBY

MONTEVIDEO, Dec. 27.—Preparations had been made for the Uruguayan cruiser to leave port today to meet the battleship Florida, which is bringing Secretary Colby to this city from Rio Janeiro. Among those who had planned to go on board the Uruguay were Foreign Minister Buero, Robert E. Jeffery, United States minister, and Oliver R. Hariman, secretary at the legation. A delegation from the colony also was ready to leave.

Upon meeting the Florida, the official party will board the American warship and Mr. Colby will be invited to transfer to the Uruguayan cruiser. The secretary is due to land here at 3 o'clock tomorrow and will be received with military honors, troops of the garrison being called out to accord him the welcome usually given a special ambassador. The secretary will then go to the government house, where he will be given a special audience by President Brum. Following the official reception Mr. Colby will be escorted to his hotel. An official banquet will be given tomorrow night by Foreign Minister Buero in honor of the visitors.

OSTRICHES DECREASING.

In 1914 there were 1,500,000 ostriches in South America. These are now reduced to 300,000. Germany and Austria are still out of the market for feathers. England is taking only a few and they are too costly for France. The ostrich feather business of the world is now in the hands of about six men with headquarters in London. They hold from $2,000,000 to $10,000,000 worth of ostrich feathers, in normal times the world's supply for a year. The United States being practically the only market for the feathers, this country has the say as to the price, and is giving from $50 to $100 a pound, when in an active market they should bring from $150 to $200.

PASTOR BEATEN BY MOB.

DETROIT, Dec. 27.—Mistaken for a thief as he was hurrying to his church with communion wafers, and an arm, Rev. Harry G. Wiley, pastor of St. Paul's English Evangelical church, was stopped and badly beaten by a crowd at Seventeenth and Buchanan streets here yesterday. The minister was knocked down twice and kicked by the crowd before he could make his identity known. He walked to the church and received first aid for cuts and bruises.

OFFICERS HOSTS.

VENICE, Dec. 27.—Officers of the United States cruiser Olympia were hosts to 1,000 children from charitable institutions at a Christmas entertainment here yesterday. Each child received candies, toys and a good dinner.

Chicago boosters are hailing George Maise, bought by the Cubs from Corliss, as a "young star." That is all right, George is pretty near a star as an outfielder, but as a youngster the St. Louis Browns saw him first in 1912.

The veteran Roy Brashear, according to report, has been signed to manage the Miner. Well, team in the West Texas league next year. He succeeded the late lamented Bill Burns in 1915 world's series fixing fame.

"MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMAN IN U. S." FAMOUS ARTIST ACCLAIMS THIS MISS

Two glorious studies of Miss Ruby de Remer.

There are many happy experiences that may come to a young and pretty woman. But perhaps the one as thrilling as any is to be officially pronounced "the most beautiful woman in America." That is what has happened to Miss Ruby de Remer. This award of supreme beauty has been given by no less an authority than Monsieur Paul Helleu, the famous French artist, whose special field in the world of art is the portraying of celebrated beauties. They have all come under his crayon at one time or another, in France and England and America, beautiful women of society and the stage. So to be acclaimed the most beautiful one of them in America is no small honor.

Monsieur Helleu, who has just completed a pastel of Miss de Remer, which is to be exhibited among other Helleu pictures at a Fifth avenue gallery this month, explains why he considers her so beautiful.

"It is the modeling of the face, in the first place," he says, "so pure, so classic. Ah, quel sculpture! What a nose, so straight, so chiseled! And the eyes and eyebrows, so exquisitely placed! But one finds something else in the face, that is rare with such regularity, such classic outline, a certain elusiveness and piquancy that spells personality. This eyebrow, for example, have a winged look, there is a little lift at one corner of the mouth. And then besides the modeling, there is the color of Mademoiselle de Remer, color rose, rose and cream. And, ah, the lovely blonde hair! I am so dark myself I admire the blonde. And mon Dieu, what a belle blondinette it is! I am grandpère, but I assure you when I have first seen Mademoiselle de Remer my heart has beaten rapidly over so much beauty."

NEGROES CAUGHT ROBBING STORE

Enough goods to fill a large automobile was discovered piled on the counters of the Marks dry goods store, Central avenue and Cooper street, when police caught Roland Gilder, 15, and Eddie Jarrett, 16, negroes, in the act of robbing the place early Monday morning.

Gilder admitted having spent three years in the Tennessee reform school for robbery. He returned to Memphis recently.

Charley Jackson, alias Henry M. Sutton, who attempted to shoot Patrolmen Cannon and Couch, of Barksdale station, when he was arrested in company with James Ireland Saturday night, has admitted that he recently broke parole from the Indiana state penitentiary at Joliet, Ill., where he was serving a 10-year sentence. They are held for investigation to ascertain whether they are responsible for the scores of robberies committed here recently.

John Henry Bryant, negro, accused by police of several robberies in the vicinity of Mosby avenue, Alabama avenue and Poplar avenue, was released Sunday from General hospital and placed under arrest. Bryant was shot in the arm by Emergency Officer Crume when he tried to resist arrest at Poplar avenue and Manassas street some days ago.

PANIC CAUSED BY HOTEL FIRE, BUT ALL ARE RESCUED

CINCINNATI, Dec. 27.—More than a score of women and children were partially overcome and a panic among the two hundred guests was narrowly averted during a fire in the Burnet Hotel here early today.

The fire originated in a storeroom in the basement of the hotel and within a few minutes clouds of smoke filled the hallways of the five upper floors.

Firemen rescued all occupants of the building, however, and the fire was confined to the basement.

TOBACCO PRODUCTION COSTS ANNOUNCED

LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 27.—The 1920 crop of burley tobacco in Kentucky cost approximately $109 an acre to grow, according to an estimate made public here by the college of agriculture of the University of Kentucky. The estimate was based on investigation of field men of the university and the United States department of agriculture who for the last two years have been making a study of the cost of producing tobacco in Kentucky.

The estimate covers only what is known as the white burley district of Central Kentucky. No estimate was made for the dark tobacco area of Western Kentucky.

The final average cost of producing and marketing the 1919 crops was fixed at $235.10 per acre for the burley district and $341.76 for the dark tobacco area.

PLAN GREAT BOOST IN U. S. WATERPOWER

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Applications for the development of more than 12,000,000 horsepower had been filed under the federal waterpower act with the federal power commission up to Dec. 15.

Completion of the contemplated plans will advance waterpower development more than 40 per cent. The projects covered in the applications range from a small ten horsepower plant for a colony of summer cottages in the Wyoming mountains to the storage of the waters of the upper Colorado and its tributaries in a huge reservoir and the ultimate development of more than 3,000,000 horsepower by the utilization of the waters in a drop of 2,900 feet.

EXPORTS TO SPAIN SHOW INCREASE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Increase of 240 per cent of American exports to Spain from 1914 to 1919 is noted in a report on the "growing importance of the Spanish market" made public by the department of commerce.

The favorable American trade growth is explained by Trade Commissioner Arthur Young, author of the report, as due largely to the displacement of Germany and to some extent of France and Great Britain in the Spanish market by the United States.

As a result of the war, the report asserts, Spain, like the United States, changed from a debtor to a creditor nation with a trade balance in favor of Spain in 1919 amounting to $172,000,000, which "strengthened the financial situation in the country to a remarkable extent."

Wades Will Start Wholesale Grocery

The firm of John Wade & Sons, Inc., manufacturers of feeds, flour and meal, will embark in the wholesale grocery business about Jan. 15, according to announcement by Joseph Wade, president of the firm. An investment of $150,000 will be invested in the stock required to start the new enterprise.

DESPERADO SLAIN.

PINCKNEYVILLE, Ill., Dec. 27.—J. (Pop) Himgland, who says he is an ex-convict, was shot to death here by Sheriff Thomas Thimig, of Perry county, after running amuck with a revolver at the Illinois Central depot, wounding three men and holding up another. Himgland was killed after he had fired on Sheriff Thimig and a deputy, wounding the former in the arm.

Love Out, Scandal In, "Baron" Says He Is Plan Mister

(By International News Service.)
CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—Those who have been referring to Joseph de Korwin as "Baron" and accrediting him with membership in the Polish nobility have been guilty of a grave mistake, take it from "Mr." de Korwin himself. He is just plain "Mr." de Korwin and not a baron, a count, a duke or even a plain "Sir."

De Korwin is in Chicago fighting for the custody of his 8-year-old son, whom he never saw until a week ago. The boy is in the custody of his mother, Mrs. Cecile Young Heyworth de Korwin, heiress to the $25,000,000 estate of the late Otto Young. Mrs. de Korwin charges that her husband is an international spendthrift and that it cost her $100,000 to "buy off" various morning wives and sweethearts, who had claimed against the bridegroom.

De Korwin has declined to discuss the charges of his wife, but hastened to disclaim any pretension to nobility.

WAIT AND SEE, NOW GREEK POLICY COULD HARDLY MAKE HIS RUN

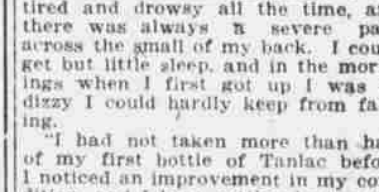

(By the Associated Press.)
ATHENS, Dec. 27.—Constantine assembled his family for the Christmas dinner yesterday, although the Greek Christmas comes 13 days later. The refusal of Admiral Kelly, head of the British naval mission here, to accept the grand cordon of the royal order of the savior is discouraging those who were sure of a change in the British attitude. The Greeks are adopting a "wait and see" policy, declaring for the allies and against Germany. A man who shouted "Long live the king and the kaiser" was beaten up.
